

Source, as never before!

Scheduled for August 5-7, 2014 at Bombay Exhibition Centre, Goregaon, in Mumbai, HGH India 2014, 3rd annual edition of the trade show, biggest ever with 100% increase in size over last year, is all set to offer a preview and sourcing opportunity for innovative range of home textiles, furnishing fabrics, home décor, houseware and gift products from 300 leading Indian and international brands, manufacturers and importers.

Going by the current pre-registration trends, at least 50% increase is expected in last year's 10,400 trade visitor numbers. Indian retailers across all categories including large format stores, specialty stores, online retailers and franchisees, national & regional distributors, wholesalers, importers, institutional and corporate gift buyers, interior designers and trade representatives from over 300 cities and towns across India are eagerly awaiting to source the latest range of products from their existing as well as new suppliers.

Besides comprehensive sourcing by serious trade buyers, which is the mainstay of HGH India, the 3rd edition is expected to bring in several new business ideas and opportunities for both exhibitors and visitors. With 75 new exhibitors and over 90% repeat participation, the trade show will offer both continuity and newness to the visitors.

Several exhibitors are planning to launch their new collections, new brands and new product categories at HGH India with a clear focus on the Indian home market, which is growing at a healthy 25% to 30% per annum. As high quality producers and leading brands from India will showcase their products side by side with leading international brands, importers and brand representatives; trade buyers will be able to easily compare designs, quality, prices and trade terms and choose options which suit them best. The trade show will also allow them to add relevant new products and categories to their stores or institutional purchases.

Besides being an effective sourcing platform HGH India 2014 is also set to bring information
